

Jehs+Laub Lounge Collection
Markus Jehs and Jürgen Laub

JEHS+LAUB LOUNGE COLLECTION At ease in the workplace or home, the strikingly simple Jehs+Laub Lounge Chair combines a sleek profile with a sculptural interior, offering seating that is both refined and approachable. The chair's generously proportioned, sweeping elevated form and upholstered interior facets provide unrestricted comfort and support whether one is working, relaxing or even napping. An optional articulating back and ottoman transform the chair to into an efficient chaise lounge. The Collection is available with distinctive polished aluminum pedestal platforms or dynamic, architectural wire bases in polished chrome; also available in black textured finish.

MARKUS JEHS AND JÜRGEN LAUB Renowned for their modern classic furniture and lighting designs as well as interior projects, most notably, suite 606, at the Ice Hotel in Northern Sweden and the worldwide master concept for Mercedes-Benz® showrooms, Jehs and Laub live and work in Stuttgart, Germany. After attending Germany's prestigious School of Design in Schwäebisch Gmuend, the team cemented their friendship during an internship in New York and later founded jehs+laub in 1994. The partnership has been the recipient of numerous international design awards.
