

DUII TAVOLO

DESIGN DIESEL /2011

Is it made with toy building blocks? Is it a character out of a comic? Or a small domestic robot? Duii surprises and amuses due to its personality, starting with its name, inspired by one of Donald Duck's friendly nephews. The base also recalls a duck's foot, but it can also be used as a convenient trinket tray. The articulated arm, held together by wing screws like bits of Meccano, supports a rounded body with a diffuser, a shape that in turn recalls a multitude of memories and inspirations: retro car headlights, a workman's hard hat but also the Mohican style shaved head of the Diesel brand. A desk, table or bedside lamp in glass and polycarbonate, available in two colour variants, yellow or grey.
