

PETT TAVOLO

DESIGN /2010

A strange winged animal alights on your desk or next to your bed, transmitting shades of atavism, but still rock: Pett has arrived. An irresistible amusing cult object for new generations, an original expression of contemporary pop culture, accessible to all, to be exploited in total freedom. Table lamp made of polycarbonate and metal. There are four finishes available: absolute white and black or neon light blue and fuchsia. It offers direct light, concentrated on a surface that can be adjusted thanks to the diffuser joint. An easy product, accessible to all, available in four different colours to meet various needs of taste: a real "take away" product. Perfect for a gift, also thanks to its presentation in specially designed packaging. Adjustable lampshade.
