

359 Kimble Windsor Chair

Kimble is a Windsor chair named after a neighbouring village of High Wycome in Buckinghamshire, where the Windsor chair originated. Made of ash and walnut, the chair uses exclusively traditional Windsor chair making techniques in order to further the story, the evolution of the English Windsor chair.

Timber

Model

359 Kimble Windsor Chair

Dimensions

w.65cm x d.67cm x h.108cm
seat height 45cm
arm height: 72cm
w.25 3/5" x d.26 3/8" x h.42 1/2"
seat height 17 5/7"
arm height: 28 1/3"

Shown in

Solid ash with a solid American black walnut seat. Danish oil finish.

Specification

Available in solid ash with a solid American black walnut seat. Danish oil finish.

Material samples available

Danish Oiled American Black Walnut

Danish Oiled Ash

DE LA ESPADA

sales@delaespada.com
www.matthewhilton.com
www.delaespada.com